A Note from Mrs. Atkins

Happy Friday!!

Can you believe that next week marks our halfway point for 1st quarter? I feel like we just had our first day of school yesterday! That's what happens when you are learning and having fun. With that being said, interim reports will be sent home next Friday. I will also be adding a link to a parent-teacher conference signup genius in our weekly email. I will share more details about conferences next week!

Please remember that Fall Pictures are next Tuesday, August 29th. These pictures are pre-order, however they are also the pictures that will be used in the school yearbook, so every student will take a picture whether you choose to purchase them or not.

This week in reading we were able to combine two standards we've learned so far to enhance our literary skills!

We worked hard all week to combine our week 2 learning: Theme, to our week 3 learning: Inference. Students had to identify clues from the story that would help them infer the overall theme. We practiced this by listening to two stories, Chrysanthemum and A Bad Case of Stripes. In both stories the main characters learned to love themselves and be true themselves. You can continue this skill over the weekend by spending some time as a family reading a fun book or watching a fun show and working as a team to infer the overall theme.

That covers everything for this week! Have a safe and fun-filled weekend!

Don't forget to keep collecting and sending in Box Tops!
