A Note from Mrs. Atkins

Happy Friday!

I hope you all had a fantastic week!

This week in math we continued our measurement by learning the customary measures, which are mainly what we use. You can continue this over the weekend by taking a look at the packing you have at home, whether it be food packaging or some kind of detergent or cleaner bottle. Notice the unit of measure used on the packages. Is it customary or is metric?

This week in writing we reviewed the features of narrative text. On Tuesday we revisited how to open and close a narrative, on Wednesday we revisited how to use transition words, on Thursday we revisited how to use dialogue and words we can use in the place of said, and today we revisited how we can use our words to show how a character felt by describing their face, body, and/or voice! We will continue this next week with our vocabulary, which is a list of synonyms for the word said.

As I stated in the Friday email, please remember that there is no school Monday.

That covers everything for this week! Have a safe and fun-filled weekend!

Don't forget to keep collecting and sending in Box Tops!
